STUDENT QUESTIONNAIRE

NAME: _____ EXPEDITION: _____ DATES: _____

PLEASE ANSWER THESE QUESTIONS AS CANDIDLY AS POSSIBLE. MOST ONLY NEED A YES OR NO ANSWER.

1. What part of the trip are you most looking forward to?
2. How much are you looking forward to your trip? On a Scale of 1 to 10 - please circle one.

Not Looking Forward To This										I Can't Wait to Go!
1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10
3. Was this trip your idea? On a Scale of 1 to 10 – please circle one.

Definitely Not My Idea										Completely My Idea
1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10
4. We are a wilderness travel program that combines adventure, challenge and fun. Our days are full; we wake up early to make the best use of the day and may need to have a long day on the trail or water to meet our schedule. Do you feel like you are up to this?
5. We make great efforts to foster a close-knit community on each expedition. We focus on the group experience, and we need to make sure that everyone understands that this may require making compromises. When traveling in a group, priorities shift from personal to the community. For example, if two members of the group would like to travel at a faster pace than everyone else, those two people may need to slow down. Are you willing to make this commitment to the expedition and to your group?
6. You do not have to have any experience in backpacking, sailing, kayaking or rafting – just a commitment to enthusiastically participate in all activities and maintain a positive attitude – your motivation is key to the success of the trip. Negative behavior, such as complaining or making fun of people, is not acceptable because it brings down the group and compromises the quality of the expedition. Does this make sense?
7. You do not need to be an athlete, but in reasonable shape. You should feel comfortable walking with approx. a 25-30 pound pack over uneven terrain. Do you feel like you are capable of this?
8. Mutually exclusive relationships and romances detract from the group experience and can be problematic. Do you understand and agree to refrain from these types of relationships during the course of the expedition?
9. Have you ever participated in something like this before? If so, what program/trip?
10. How did you hear about us?
